Obligations and Rights of the Runners – Sanctions for Violations

1. Acceptance of Terms and Compliance:

- a. By submitting their registration form and participating in the races, runners accept the terms and rules of the event and are obliged to strictly adhere to them and follow the instructions of the Judges.
- b. By submitting their registration form and participating in the races, runners accept, under penalty of disqualification and/or cancelation, that they may — at any time before, during, or after the races — be subject to anti-doping control, either by the Organizing Committee or by another Greek or International authority.
- c. Runners, supporters, and all persons involved in the Race are required to comply with the above regulations in all their provisions.
- d. Runners, supporters, and all persons involved in the Race are obliged to follow any additional on-site instructions given by the Organizing Committee.
- e. Violations committed by members of a runner's support team will be attributed directly to the athlete.

2. Judges: The race will be supervised by officially authorized Judges, who have full authority to impose the prescribed sanctions for any violation committed by a runner and/or their supporter.

3. Inspections: The Judges, official officers, or other authorized representatives of the Organizing Committee may inspect at any time all runners, their supporters, and any vehicles related to the race.

4. Evidence: Any case of violation of the regulations may be examined using visual material (e.g., photos or video footage) from the organizers or any other individual or organization, in order to verify the circumstances under which the incident occurred.

5. Reporting of Violations:

- a. Any runner or the head of their support team may report any violation committed by another runner or supporter.
- b. The report must be submitted in writing and delivered to an official representative of the Organizing Committee at the nearest checkpoint (C/P) or at the finish line, no later than fifteen (15) minutes after the official end of the race.

6. Objections/Protests:

- a. Any objection regarding a breach of the regulations must be submitted in writing to the Organizers no later than seven (7) working days after the official conclusion of the event.

Annual Three-Day Events

«Yiannis Kouros 2026»

- b. The official results will be announced within twelve (12) working days following the conclusion of the event.

7. Violations and Penalties:

- a. In the event that a runner violates the rules of the Organizing Committee, the following sanctions may be imposed to him/her:
 - i. Cancellation of their participation
 - ii. Disqualification from the race
 - iii. Annulment of their race result
 - iv. Exclusion from future editions of the International Double Marathon “Yiannis Kouros” and/or the International Half Marathon “Nikitaras”

b. Penalty Escalation:

- i. In cases of rule violations by a runner, the Judges may issue a warning by showing the runner a “yellow card”.
- ii. Two yellow cards result in the immediate disqualification of the runner from the Race.

8. Runners are removed, disqualified, or excluded from the race in cases of:

- i. Violation of any provision of the Race regulations.
- ii. Receiving unauthorized assistance of any kind.
- iii. Displaying unsportsmanlike behavior towards another runner, judge, or race official, either personally, or through members of their support team.
- iv. Failure to comply with the instructions of authorized race officials.
- v. Arriving after the designated time limit at intermediate Checkpoints (C/P).
- vi. Following an order from the officially authorized medical team of the race.

9. Knowledge of Regulations:

- a. Runners and their supporters must be fully informed of the race regulations.
- b. Runners, as well as any other involved or interested parties, are required to attend all briefing sessions held before the start of the race, at the time and place designated by the Organizing Committee.

10. Clothing and Appearance of Runners – Permitted Equipment and Supplies:

I. Race participation number:

- a. Each runner will receive a race number (bib), which is strictly personal and may not be transferred to another person or altered in any way. All runners must visibly wear their race number (bib number) on

Annual Three-Day Events

«Yiannis Kouros 2026»

- their chest, and/or at any other point indicated by the organizers, unaltered and in the condition provided by the Organizing Committee.
- b. Any modification of the race number will result in the immediate disqualification of the runner from the race and the cancellation of their result and ranking.

II. Flag, Country Name, Club Emblem: Runners are allowed to display on their racing attire the flag of their country, the name of their country, or the emblem of their athletic club.

III. Prohibited Markings on Clothing:

- a. It is strictly forbidden for race clothing to display any words or symbols referring to ideologies, religious or political beliefs of any kind.
- b. It is strictly forbidden for race clothing to display slogans, except those approved or indicated by the Organizing Committee.

11. Runners' Footwear:

- a. All racing shoes worn by each runner must comply with Article 5 (TR5) of the World Athletics technical regulations, including heel and sole dimensions, with a maximum sole thickness of 40 mm.
- b. It is the runners responsibility to ensure that the shoes they use in the race are included in the current list of approved shoe models by World Athletics(<https://www.worldathletics.org/about-iaaf/documents/technical-information>)
- c. An athlete will not be allowed to compete if they do not comply with Article 5 (TR5) or the list of approved shoes.
- d. If a runner's non-compliance with Article 5 (TR5) and/or the approved shoe list is discovered after the race, their race result will be annulled.

12. Runner Support:

- a. In accordance with the applicable international regulations, all male and female athletes participating in road races outside stadium are only permitted to receive refreshments from the officially designated refreshment stations established by the Organizing Committee along the route.
- b. As defined by international regulations, receiving refreshments at any other point on the course from any other person (such as a coach, escort, spectator, etc.) will result in the runner's disqualification.

13. Race Parameters and Runner Conduct:

- a. Route Marking: The Starting Point, course, and Finish Line are clearly defined and marked with special signs.

Annual Three-Day Events

«Yiannis Kouros 2026»

- b. Route Familiarization: The Organizing Committee will provide assistance, as far as possible, to help runners and their supporters familiarize themselves with the race route.
- c. Adherence to the Route:
 - i. Runners are required to run only along the designated route, ensuring they cover the exact race distance.
 - ii. All runners must strictly follow the correct course and the official signage placed along the route.
- d. Runner Guidance: On-site guidance of the runners from the start to the finish line, to prevent disorientation, will be provided by the Judges or other persons authorized by the Organizing Committee.
- e. Deviation – Leaving the Official Route:
 - i. If, for any reason, a runner leaves or deviates from the designated route, they are required to return to the point of exit/deviation in order to continue the race.
 - ii. Runners who fail to comply with the above requirement will be immediately disqualified and removed from the race at any time, without further notice.
- f. Prohibition of Accompanying Runners:
 - i. Throughout the race, it is strictly forbidden for runners to be accompanied by any means by coaches, supporters, volunteers, or any other persons.
 - ii. In the event of a violation of the above rule by any person, the associated runners will be immediately disqualified, and their results will be annulled.
- g. Prohibitions of Physical Contact:
 - i. No one has the right to touch any runner while they are in motion.
 - ii. Physical contact is only permitted in designated areas and only by physiotherapists or doctors authorized by the Organizing Committee.
- h. Prohibition of Assisting Runners:

Throughout the race, under penalty of immediate disqualification of the involved runner:

 - i. It is strictly forbidden for any person who is not officially registered as a runner to move alongside a runner as a “pacer.”
 - ii. It is strictly forbidden for officially registered runners to use a support vehicle or any other vehicle for any reason.
 - iii. It is strictly forbidden for support vehicles to move in front of, or parallel to, on the right or left side at the same level as the runners.

16. Other Race Regulations

- a. Communication with the Organizing Committee: Runners, their family members, escorts, media representatives, and all other interested parties are requested to communicate exclusively with an authorized representative of the Organizing Committee, who will display a distinctive badge, in order to receive instructions or information related to the race.
- b. Accreditation of Other Persons, Identification Badges: Journalists, TV crews, medical teams, diplomatic delegations, and all other persons, groups, and vehicles associated with the race, are required to register and be accredited to the Organizing Committee during the Registration Period prior to the race. They must receive their personal accreditation card, identification badge, and written authorization, which must be presented immediately upon request during any inspection by race officials and/or police authorities.
- c. Individuals and vehicles have a distinct role and do not interfere with, or obstruct, the task of other activities.
- d. Penalties: Any violation will result in the automatic disqualification of the offending persons or vehicles from the race.

17. Obligation to Stay Informed and Communicate:

- a. Runners, supporters, volunteers, media members, and all other interested parties must stay informed about all matters related to the race by visiting the official website: www.yianniskouros.gr
- b. The website publishes announcements and instructions for all categories of people interested in the race.

- c. For any race-related matter not covered by the website publications, or if additional information is required, interested parties may contact the Organizing Committee by sending inquiries to yk.bl.2026@gmail.com
- d. Posting announcements and updates on the official race website is sufficient to demonstrate that all interested parties have been informed.

18. Vehicle Movement on the Route

A. Support Vehicles

- a) For safety reasons, all vehicles related to the race must be driven with extreme caution and at low speed throughout the event, especially on narrow roads.
- b) All vehicles must have their hazard lights (alarm) turned on while moving.
- c) In all cases, priority is given to the vehicles of the Judges, the Organizing Committee, the Medical Team, and the Refreshment Team.

B. Media Vehicles

- a) Media Vehicles (TV crews, photographers, cameramen, journalists, etc.) must follow the race at an appropriate distance from the runners so as not to obstruct them, block the view, or provide any form of assistance, in any way.
- b) Drivers of these vehicles are required to obey the instructions of the Judges and other authorized representatives of the Organizing Committee.
- c) Any violation or refusal to comply will result in the immediate removal of the vehicle from the race, the revocation of accreditation for its occupants, and potentially the disqualification of the assisted runner.

19. Uncovered Cases

Any situation not explicitly covered by these regulations will be resolved by the Race Director and the on-site representative of the Organizing Committee.

Participation Sponsorship

Runners whose participation in the race is approved are asked to provide a sponsorship contribution to support the purposes of “Yiannis Kouros – Beyond Limits” (YK-BL). The contribution should be at least equivalent to the value of the free supply package they select, and the amount may vary depending on the date the payment is made, as mentioned in the table below.
